- Glasgow Vikings
- Exploring the landscape with Arrochar Primary School 's interactive slide show
- Launch of the free Hidden Heritage publications:
 - ◇ 'Reflections of a Hidden Landscape' photography book
 - ◇ 'What's Hiding in the Hills' poster
 - ◇ 'The Hidden Heritage Trail' leaflet
 - ◇ 'The Viking Heritage Trail' leaflet
 - ◇ Slate mosaic interpretation panel
- Primary School Viking topic resource boxes
- The Isthmus Tapestry

Sunday 11 May

10.30 am and 11.30 am, A Walk into the Past

Join a walk with local guides to discover the new Hidden Heritage Trail. There are two starting times from the Three Villages Hall (the latter for those who can't get up too early!) The walk is about 2.5 miles long and follows reasonably good-quality paths. Each walk will break mid-way, near the tarmac drive opposite the bus stop at Ballyhennan Crescent, for snacks and demonstrations of:

- Flint knapping with Dr Dene Wright
- Dry stone dyke repairs with the West of Scotland Dry Stone Dyking Association
- Boat dragging with the Galgael Trust (and any willing volunteers!)
- 'Burnt mounds'; heating water in pre-history with Northlight Heritage
- Ancient dyeing using woad with Northlight Heritage

Please book places on the walk in advance (see form overleaf). For information on accommodation and transport to the area, please see the local community website: www.threevillages.org.uk
